Hi Alex,

I'm attaching what should be the final version of the briefing paper for tomorrow, and I'm also resending your proposed talking points so that you have them both in one place.

Based on the preparatory discussions we've had today with OGC and OW, we understand they are proposing the following for the order of tomorrow's proceedings:

- Steve Neugeboren will open it up and describe the framework for the discussion.
- You would then give the R.1 perspective.
- Corey Buffo in OW would run through the options and policy issues in the briefing paper.
- Lee Schroer in OGC Water Law Office would discuss legal risks.

Obviously this choreographing is subject to all sorts of disruptions depending on how the discussion goes in the moment. But sometimes it helps to go in with a plan.

Best and good luck, Tim
